Bounty Premium offers a range of premium primal cuts of beef that have been grain fed for a minimum 100 day period to increase marbling, enhancing the meat's tenderness and flavour. EQG Graded to ensure consistent eating quality, each cut of beef is supremely tender, succulent and rich in flavour.

The cattle are raised on the lush New England high country clover and rye grass pastures in north eastern rural New South Wales, and are governed by hundreds of years of local and global meat industry experience. The cattle are then finished at the famous Myola feedlot, a state-of-the-art facility. A fully integrated supply chain secures each piece as a safe, clean, reliable and traceable product.
